

GFCO inspects products and manufacturing facilities for gluten and the GF logo stands for the independent verification of quality, integrity, and purity of products. Products carrying the GF logo represent unmatched reliability and meet strict gluten-free standards. GFCO is the leading gluten-free certification program in the world. These standards are confirmed by field inspections to achieve heightened consumer confidence and safety. You can learn more at: <http://www.gfco.org>.

Whether you are newly diagnosed with Celiac disease or have been living gluten-free for years, we at Boulder Sausage want to help you discover how to truly thrive living gluten-free.

GFCO does not certify products for other potential allergens. The contents of this site are not intended as medical advice.